Mark 10:46-52

And they came to Jericho.

And as he was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a great crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, the son of Timaeus, was sitting by the roadside. 47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" 48 And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" 49 And Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart. Get up; he is calling you." 50 And throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. 51 And Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?"

And the blind man said to him, "Rabbi, let me recover my sight." 52 And Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your faith has made you well." And immediately he recovered his sight and followed him on the way.

Bottom Line – Faith is about approaching and asking.

1. What are some not-so-self-aware questions you've been asked by a child? _____

2. Why are children so good at asking for what they want? _____

3. Why do you think we're hesitant to ask God for what we want? _____

4. Read Mark 10:46-52. How do you think Bartimaeus felt when he heard Jesus was coming? _____

5. How do you think God feels when we ask Him for something? _____

6. God doesn't always give us what we ask for. But what are some guarantees He gives us about asking for Him for things? _____

7. Write about some things you want to ask God for. Spend some time talking with Him about those things.
